

What the Value of the Present Vaccines is

Excerpt from the 785th contact of Tuesday, 16th of November 2021

Bermunda ... It was unavoidable, but I was really indispensable. This is because, as an expert, I had to engage in depth in the research on the exact effects of the untried and dangerous, sometimes even life-endangering vaccines around the corona virus and the occurrences surrounding them, which really do bring forth unpleasant results on the whole. All this is much more extensive than it generally seems to be, for it actually comprises much more than just that which is being incompletely and fraudulently 'explained' to earthly humanity.

Billy Ptaah wants nothing more to do with that. He is angry, which is unusual for him. And since I do not know whether you also ...

Bermunda No, I will keep working on it. I am familiar with the fact that he no longer wants to talk about it because he cannot understand that so much unintellect and irrationality prevails among the responsible ones of the heads of the countries of the earthly national leaderships and that, as a result, a recurrence of a renewed spreading of infections with the corona virus can take place. Ptaah is probably angry and also disappointed because the earthly responsible ones of government do not recognise the effective truth of the whole, consequently they also do not decree and issue the right thing for the peoples, wherethrough the corona virus could really be kept at bay in such a form that it could no longer burden Earth humanity as a pandemic or as an epidemic. It will no longer be possible to exterminate the virus, but it will rather continue to exist for millennia. However, by taking the right action, it is possible to take the edge off the dread of the dangerousness of another pandemic or epidemic.

That further infections can arise again is the fault of the national leadership in each country who allows, without any precaution, the non-wearing of respiratory protection masks and the keeping of distance from one human being to another. This is the case, just as the stupid 2G and 3G rules (In some German speaking countries G-rules exist: '2G' means that a person has to be 'Geimpft' (= vaccinated) or 'Genesen' (= recovered from Covid), '3G' means a person has to be 'Geimpft', 'Genesen' or 'Getestet' (= negative Covid test) for admittance into restaurants or other venues.) were thought up – without really thinking – which are therefore senseless, because many of the supposed vaccinations are completely futile, this because many of these supposed vaccines are only used for the sake of profit, although they do not contain any real active substances against the virus, but only consist of distilled water as well as saline solutions. Other vaccines, however, are products that are immature and have been insufficiently tested and are consequently harmful to health or even deadly. Many of those vaccinated with such substances assume that they are immune to infection by the corona virus, but this is not true, since immunity cannot be achieved through the use of distilled water or saline solution or other apparent vaccines, which is why many persons 'vaccinated' with apparent vaccines suffer so-called 'vaccination breakthrough infections' and fall ill to the virus. A great number of such 'vaccinations' – running into many millions and creating the pretence that so and so many individuals have actually been vaccinated – are completely worthless and even deceive the national leaders and the responsible epidemiologists, virologists and medics into assuming something that does not exist in reality. Vaccination certificates – vaccination passports, and so forth, as they are called – are also traded in the same criminal form, for as we have been able to ascertain with our possibilities of examinations/research, such falsifications of certificates amount to several millions. The authorities do not know how many of them are circulating, hence the officially announced information does not correspond to reality and its truth in any respect. In fact, however, there are several million that correspond to such perfect falsifications and which are also being sold at a high price that only very few of these are recognised as such, if at all: mainly only incompetent falsifications are recognised as such.

The new excesses of the corona virus have become a disaster on Earth, which is criminally exploited, but which the big-talking heads of nations do not want to recognise, consequently they allow themselves to be led into delusion and play into the hands of criminality and eventually terrorise the peoples through dictatorial coercive measures – which will already soon be the case. This incapability of the imperious heads of state will lead to the rebellion and insurgence of those masses amongst the population who will be against – if I may use your terms – the wrong directions and decrees of the 'people-leaders' who are presiding over the countries. That the wrong thing is decreed and done instead of the right thing, as Ptaah called it, as I know – because we were able to listen to your conversation with him at noon today – namely, that due to the absence of clear thinking and real decisions, as well as of right directives, decrees and modes of action on the part of the heads of state, everything runs contrary and has a detrimental effect. This leads to Ptaah venting his anger because of it and no longer wanting to say anything about all of this. That is well understandable, because the well-being of Earth humanity is dear to his heart, as you would say.

That which truly requires intellect and rationality – which the heads of nations are obviously devoid of and thus the peoples are lied to and 'guided' wrongly – is very much less than all the responsible ones of the states on Earth are able to accomplish. Might-eagerness and imperiousness are their habits, from which hatred against them arises in that part of the peoples who think further and see further than the responsible ones of the states themselves, as well as those who are subservient to the authorities and are themselves as incapable of thinking logically as the authorities are.

From a comprehending and rational as well as a really thinking Wesen (A Wesen is an independently existing life form with its own individuality and personality in an impulse, instinct or conscious consciousness-form that is specifically directed towards all possibilities of evolution, and with its own physical, psychical (relating to the psyche), conscious, part-conscious, unconscious, impulse- or instinct-related development-forms (human being, animal, creature and plants). From: <https://figu.org/dict/node/2038>) – especially the human being – one could actually expect the use of intellect and rationality, which one could also expect from the Earth human being, however, only 'could' expect it, since one cannot really expect it from those who are not yet capable of real, logical thinking. And these are all those who, as heads of state and thus as official powers, fail in situations like the one that the present corona pandemic has been presenting for about 2 years. If the right things had been considered, decided, arranged and carried out at the beginning of the rampantly spreading disease, then the rampantly spreading disease could have been fought against and ended within a few months, before it could pervert into a pandemic, because at that time the peoples of all countries were still willing to comply with the necessary measures that were issued and decreed. Then, however, the heads of state failed and decided on a chaotic confusion, namely through directives which were against all intellect and rationality, which unsettled all the peoples and made their interest in fighting against the rampantly spreading corona disease wane. This further resulted from the inadequate efficacy of the vaccines, which were suddenly thrown on the market and led to life-endangering consequences that many human beings did not survive, while other substances were completely useless because they consisted only of distilled water or saline solutions, and so forth, as a result of which the persons who were 'treated' with them became ill – or died – despite the 'vaccination'.

Truthly, there are only very few Earth human beings who are capable of a normal and healthy intellect and logical rationality in order to see, estimate and assess the situation correctly, for the majority of Earth humanity is subservient to authority and religion and allows itself to be lulled into and led into delusion by lies and be presented illusions of unreality. Moreover, their bondage deprives them of any clear intellect and logical rationality, therefore they become incapable of clear thinking, decision-making and acting and lose any initiative of their own to do so. Their bondage infatuates them into simply believing everything that is thrown to them to believe.

Billy It is being thrown to them like food to animals, so to speak, which then – how could it be otherwise – is just being 'gobbled down', that is to say, believed, without even a touch of their own consideration, that is to say thinking, being taken into account.

Bermunda These are your words, but they express exactly that which corroborates what I have said. One can only expect a real, comprehensible and rational thinking, decision-making and acting from an individual for whom right thinking, decision-making and acting is always in the foreground as the most important and logical aspect in any case. This, however, is obviously not the case, especially with the earthly responsible ones of the states, as it is also not the case with the majority of the Earth's peoples, who elect incapable responsible ones of the states to the front line, who, however, fail miserably when right and logical thinking, decision-making and acting are required, as is currently evident in the event of the pandemic. This is also the reason why there is constant unpeace between the earthly peoples and everything gets very badly out of the control of the good human nature into war and terror, in which case religious belief is also a factor that contributes to the whole of the unpeace. The whole of this constant unpeace does not foresee anything good for the upcoming future of Earth humanity, for it is seething underground and everything is wavering with uncertainty, because in this respect everything is as if it were on feet of glass, which can quickly break down and lead not only to looming popular insurgencies, but also to wars between nations, which are actually constantly lying in wait on the horizon of the future.

Billy From your mouth to the rulers' ears – but they will not listen to it in their idiocy. They are imperious and will remain so ...

Bermunda Unfortunately, that will be the case, and that will mean for many more human lives that they ...

Billy ... will 'depart this life'. That's what you wanted to say, isn't it?

Bermunda      Yes. ...
